

Yackandandah Folk Festival

Street Urchins Buskers Competition

Conditions of Entry:

1. To enter the competition you must be an amateur and/or emerging artist. Performers working professionally (ie. Gaining income from music performance) may busk on the street throughout the festival, but are not eligible to win the Street Urchins Buskers Competition.
2. There are two categories for the competition: Under 15 and an Open category.
3. The competition accepts both individual and group entries.

Claiming Your prize:

1. The winner of the competition will receive a ticket to Yackandandah Folk Festival 2018 and will be asked to perform a 30-45 minute spot on the program.
2. If the winner of the competition is by an individual soloist, the performance at the 2018 Festival must also be solo.
3. If the winner of the competition is by a group, the performance at the 2018 Festival must be by the same group members that performed in the competition. Only those that performed in the competition are eligible for a ticket to the festival.
4. Please provide contact details to event organisers to arrange collecting your prize.
5. The Folk Festival organisers will contact you prior to 2018 to discuss claiming your prize. Due to programming requirements, if you do not respond to the committee's attempts to contact you by the requested date you forfeit your prize.
6. The Folk Festival is not responsible for transport costs to and from the 2018 Festival.
